New Delhi, the 22nd November 1967

S.R.O. 372.—The following bye-laws for regulation of the assessment and collection of octroi in the Aurangabad Cantonment framed by the Cantonment Board Aurangabad, in exercise of the powers conferred by clause (3) of section 282 and section 283 of the Cantonments Act, 1924 (2 of 1924), are hereby published for general information, the same having been previously published and having been approved and confirmed by the Central Government as required by sub-section (1) of section 284 of the said Act, namely:—

BYE-LAWS FOR THE REGULATION OF THE ASSESSMENT RECOVERY AND COLLECTION OF OCTROI TAX (WITHOUT REFUND) IN THE AURANGABAD CANTT

1. Definitions.—In these bye-Laws, unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context;

- (i) "Act" means the Cantonments Act, 1924 (2 of 1924).
- (ii) "Board" means the Cantonment Board, Aurangabad.
- (iii) "Export" with its grammatical variations and cognate expression means export from the Aurangabad Cantonment.
- (iv) "Import" with its grammatical variations and cognate expression means import into Aurangabad Cantonment.
- (v) "Barrier" means a place appointed under these bye-Laws for interception of import traffic.
- (vi) "Octroi Post" means any place appointed by the Board for collection of octroi tax.
- (vii) "Tax" means the octroi tax levied on the import of goods.
- (viii) "Goods" includes animals and vehicles.
- (ix) "Octroi Officer" means any person appointed by the Board either as a clerk or as a peon for assessment, collection or recovery of octroi.
- (x) "Octroi Superintendent" means the Octroi Superintendent of Cantonment Board, Aurangabad.

2. Octroi Limits.—The octroi limits for the purpose of octroi tax, in force in Aurangabad Cantonment shall be the limits of the Aurangabad Cantonment.

3. Octroi Post and Barrier.—(1) The Board shall appoint a place or places on such points within the octroi limits as may from time to time be determined most suitable for assessment and collection of octroi tax:

Provided that nothing in these bye-laws shall be deemed to prevent the assessment and collection of tax at any other place in accordance with the provisions of these bye-laws.

(2) The Board may order that barrier be erected at a place or places determined as most suitable for intercepting import traffic for the assessment and collection of the tax and all vehicles and persons passing the barrier shall stop there for check by the Octroi Officer for the purpose of assessment and payment of the tax.

4. Appointment of Octroi Officers and Their Duties.—The Board shall appoint such number of clerks and peons as may be considered necessary, who shall discharge all duties in connection with assessment and collection of the tax and it shall be their duty to see that all goods liable to octroi brought within the limits are stopped at the barrier or are brought to the octroi post and are dealt with in accordance with these bye-laws and also to see that tax has been duly paid.

5. Assessment and Collection.—No Octroi Superintendent shall be responsible generally for the proper assessment and collection of the tax in accordance with these bye-laws and for due discharge of their duties by the octroi officers.

6. Identification of Officials.—Every Octroi Officer shall at all times either wear a badge indicative of his office or shall, on demand, produce a letter of authority in his favour signed by the Executive Officer.

7. Payment to be in cash.—Octroi tax shall be recovered in currency and no Octroi Officer shall receive goods of any description either as payment or as security for the payment of the tax.

8. Custody of cash.—(1) All money recovered at the octroi posts shall be put in the cash box. The cash box shall have double lock system, one key of which shall remain in the custody of the Octroi Superintendent and the other with the Octroi Officer.

(2) The Octroi Officer shall on demand supply the octroi payer with such change upto the value of one rupee as may be required by him for the payment of the octroi tax.

9. Inspection of Octroi Posts.—(1) The President, Vice-President, Executive Officer or any person authorised by the Board may periodically visit the octroi posts and inspect the Registers and accounts maintained in accordance with these bye-laws.

(2) An Inspection Book shall be maintained at each post in Form I appended to these bye-laws and the Inspecting Officers shall record therein the results of their inspection and in case of any complaint about working of the post, a copy thereof shall be sent by the Officer-in-Charge of the post to the Octroi Superintendent, who shall report the matter to the Executive Officer for necessary action thereon.

10. Exhibition of Schedule and Bye-laws.—A copy of the octroi Schedule and these bye-laws duly authenticated by the signature of the Executive Officer shall be affixed at a conspicuous place at each post.

11. Weights and Scales.—The Board shall provide at each post a suitable set of scales and weights or a weighing machine, which shall be tested at intervals of not more than three months by the Octroi Superintendent who shall record the result of each test in the Inspection Book.

12. Declaration of Goods.—(1) Whenever any goods liable to octroi tax are intended to be imported within the octroi limits the person-in-charge of the goods shall bring them to the nearest octroi post and shall declare whether such goods are intended:—

(i) for immediate export,

(ii) for consumption, sale or use within the octroi limits.

13. Goods in Transit.—(1) When goods liable to octroi tax are declared under bye-law 12 to be goods for immediate export, the Officer-in-charge of the post concerned shall fill up a transit pass in Form II appended to these bye-laws and hand over the same to the person importing the goods who shall deposit the same at the post of export. All such passes shall be sent to the Octroi Superintendent on the following day, and the Octroi Superintendent shall check them with the counterfoils.

(2) The Officer-in-Charge at the post of export shall check the goods with the entries in the pass and in case of any deficiency report the matter immediately to the Octroi Superintendent and detain the goods for checking by him.

14. Powers to inspect goods and demand passes.—(1) The Executive Officer, Octroi Superintendent every Octroi Officer and any other person or persons specially authorised by a resolution of the Board in this behalf, may demand the octroi receipts for inspection at any time after the goods have been brought within the limits and before they have arrived at the destination, and check the entries by inspection of the goods and where the person-in-charge of the goods refuses to show the receipt or to allow inspection of the goods, the goods shall be liable to be removed to and detained at the nearest post or the Cantonment Board Office until it is shown that octroi on them has been paid.

(2) The checking officer shall initial the receipt in token of his check and retain with him the counterfoil which he shall deposit in the office of the Board or send to the Octroi Superintendent.

(3) Where on checking any discrepancy is noticed or it is believed that full amount of the octroi has not been paid or the goods do not respond to the description as entered in the receipt, the goods shall be taken to the nearest octroi post and be detained there till the matter has been investigated by the Executive Officer. In case the goods inspected do not tally with the description in the receipt, the person-in-charge of the goods shall be deemed to have committed an offence under section 82(1) of the Act.

15. Seizure of goods.—When any goods are seized in exercise of the powers conferred under section 22(2) of the Act, the Officer seizing the goods shall immediately report the matter to the Octroi Superintendent who shall give or send to the importer a memo in Form III appended to these bye-laws.

16. Procedure for assessment and recovery of Octroi Tax.—When goods liable to octroi tax are brought within the limits and are intended for consumption, sale or use therein, octroi tax shall be paid by the person-in-charge of the goods in accordance with the provisions of these bye-laws, before these are allowed to pass the post, and a receipt in Form IV appended to these bye-laws shall be given by the Octroi Officer to the importer. Any consignee may pay in advance octroi tax due on any goods on production of the relevant vouchers or bills and the goods shall be checked on arrival at the post and allowed to pass if they tally with the description entered but in cases where any goods are found in excess, octroi shall be paid on them before they are allowed to pass, and in cases where the goods received are short than those paid for, an entry to that effect shall be made in the receipt and the remaining goods allowed to pass on arrival after due and proper checking.

17. Progressive total of collection.—The Officer-in-Charge of the post while issuing the receipt, shall enter at the bottom of the receipt, the progressive total of the octroi received at the post on that day and the inspecting officers shall, while inspecting the posts, see that the progressive totals are regularly and properly entered and not postponed till the close of the day.

18. Closing of Daily Accounts.—The total of each days collection shall be struck at the close of the day, the time for which shall be fixed by the Executive Officer.

19. Cash Boxes.—A double set of cash boxes and receipt books shall be maintained at each post, so that working at the posts is not delayed when the Cash Box and books are taken to the Cantonment Board Office for deposit and check.

20. Accounts.—The Officer-in-Charge of the octroi post, shall maintain a daily collection register in Form V appended to these bye-laws.

21. Deposit of Cash.—(1) The Cash Boxes shall be opened on all working days by the Octroi Superintendent in the presence of the respective Octroi Officer and the Office Cashier, and for all money recovered therefrom receipt in Form Cantt. 4-B shall be given by the Cashier and all counterfoils contents of which are received will be initialled both by the Octroi Superintendent and the Cashier.

(2) The cash recovered from the boxes in pursuance of clause (1) shall be brought to account in accordance with the procedure for cash received in the office of the Board.

(3) In case of short or excess recovery or where the cash in the box does not tally with the amounts shown on the counterfoils, the matter shall be immediately reported to the Executive Officer for such action as he may deem fit under the circumstances.

22. Duty to weigh and open the packages.—The person-in-charge of the goods shall be bound to open and weigh the packages, when required to do so by the Officer-in-Charge of the octroi post to enable him to examine the goods for assessing the amount of octroi due on the goods concerned. The person-in-charge of the goods shall also be responsible to open and weigh the goods to facilitate inspection under bye-law 13.

23. Power to search where octroi is leviable.—(1) Every person bringing or receiving a conveyance, parcel, or any goods or luggage on which octroi tax is or is believed to be leviable shall, on demand by any Octroi Officer, Octroi Superintendent, Executive Officer or any person authorised by the Board by a resolution in this behalf, whether at the octroi post or at any other place within the Cantonment

(a) allow inspection, weighment or examination for the purpose of ascertaining whether the goods are liable to octroi tax or whether octroi tax has been fully paid;

(b) communicate all information or produce any bills, invoices or other documents relating to such goods and shall not give any information which is false or which he has reasonable cause to believe to be false or not true or produce any documents which are false, forged or fraudulent.

(2) Any such person who is asked to disclose information as above may demand to be taken before the Cantonment Executive Officer to have the inspection made in his presence.

24. Excess or short recovery.—(1) Whenever any person, who has paid octroi tax on the goods, finds that due to some miscalculation excess amount has been charged or the amount has been recovered unlawfully, he may, within seven days from the date of assessment, file a claim of the amount due before the Executive Officer.

(2) Where it transpires that due to miscalculation or oversight short recoveries have been made, the person-in-charge of the goods shall be liable to pay the difference.

25. Penalty.—Any person who commits a breach of any of these bye-laws shall be punishable with fine which may extend to one hundred rupees.
